

Ever wondered what it's like to be a graphic designer & creative assistant in a public affairs consultancy agency?
Want to work on a variety of print, digital and interactive projects?

FleishmanHillard is one of the largest communications agencies in the world. We are currently seeking undergraduate interns to spend six months 2017-2018 working in our dynamic European Union office in Brussels.

The Internship...

The internship will provide numerous great opportunities including:

- A year working in a multinational and dynamic office of one of the world's largest communications agencies
- Being a full member of our design team exposed to all aspects of creative design and consultancy
- An environment to apply your skills in a wide variety of design projects, both offline and online, for global brands across clients in different industry sectors
- The ability to build a solid portfolio of work

The Responsibilities...

- Produces a variety of design outputs and documentation across a range of projects, demonstrating creativity and a flair for design
- Concept, design & execute offline & online assets including website buttons, newsletters, banners, brochures and infographics
- Assist in the creation and maintenance of web content (including creating and uploading web optimized images, making updates with HTML/CSS and PHP)
- Support quality and consistency across online creative
- Collaborate in brainstorming and idea generation meetings
- Create digital image assets, email marketing programs, online advertising, along with creating assets for client blogs and social media outlets
- Assist with image retouching and editing

ABOUT FH

FleishmanHillard is one of the world's leading communications firms, with 2,300 employees working in more than 80 offices in 29 countries around the globe. Our public affairs practice offers the premier network dedicated to public affairs with over 500 specialised consultants in offices throughout Europe, and North America.

The Intern...

The programme is aimed at undergraduates currently completing their second year at university in courses such as multimedia or digital design.

An ideal candidate should have:

- A “can-do” approach to life and the ability to produce work to high standard, including attention to detail
- An interest in European affairs
- Technical competence in use of MAC and PC systems
- Experience in using design software such as Indesign, Illustrator, Photoshop (Adobe Creative Suite)
- Proficiency in using online design and media resources such as photo libraries.
- Excellent knowledge of Wordpress or Drupal, Adobe/Flash, Word, PowerPoint and Excel
- Initiative and creative flare
- The capacity to deal with conflicting priorities, work under pressure and deliver for deadlines
- Excellent communication skills; able to explain how the design meets the brief.
- An ability to work in an innovative environment, with a proactive and multi-cultural team

The Application...

Interested students should submit the Portfolio, CV and a letter of motivation to FleishmanHillard via the course leader at their university.

- Initial applications should be submitted via their course leaders by Friday, 27 January, 5pm BST
- Interviews with selected students will take place in the week of 13 February

Additional Details...

Remuneration | FleishmanHillard EU covers the monthly living expenses of undergraduate interns and provides for one return journey to the intern’s home country per internship (within the EU).

Academic commitments | FleishmanHillard EU is happy to discuss with partner institutions arrangements to ensure a certain part of the working week is set aside for research for final year dissertations or research projects. We are also happy to seek to ensure that interns are placed in an environment where specific language skills are used as required by their course programmes.

“Working at Fleishman Hillard, in the most positive way possible, is everything I expected and everything I didn’t expect wrapped into one. The internship has enabled me to grow and expand my knowledge with countless experiences.”

Michelle Kundodyiwa
University of Essex
Intern 2016-2017

“Interning at FleishmanHillard is a truly one-of-a-kind opportunity. Not only will you diversify your portfolio and gain applicable professional experience, but you will always feel like a valuable member of your team.”

Elizabeth Berg
University of Missouri
Intern 2016

FleishmanHillard
Square de Meeûs 35
1000 Brussels
Belgium

Tel: +32 2 230 05 45
Fax: +32 2 230 57 06

fleishmanhillard.eu